PEACE TREATY IS RATIFIED BY RUSS SOVIETS

Congress In Session at Moscow Announces Vote 453 to 30

OPENS WAY FOR INTERVENTION
OF THE JAPANESE IN SIBERIA

Russia Must Renounce Territory, Demobilize Army and Disarm Warships

(Associated Press Telegram)
Petrograd, Thursday, March 14.—The all-Russian congress of Soviets, meeting at Moscow today, by a vote of 453 to 30, decided to ratify the peace treaty with the central powers.

M. Ryazanov, a prominent Bolshevik theorist, and representatives of all of the professional unions resigned from the Bolshevik party after the vote.

The action of the all-Russian Congress of Soviets in accepting the German peace terms clears the way for announcement of allied intentions as regards Japanese intervention in Siberia and gives Germany vast opportunities for political and economic penetration of the former Russian empire. The decision of the congress is the culmination of the peace steps begun by the Bolshevik government last December.

The first peace conference at Brest-Litovsk was abortive, Germany on February 15 rejecting the declarations of Foreign Minister Troitzky and resuming hostilities against Russia. The Germans then made peace with the Ukraine and prepared to aid the government there in putting down the Bolsheviks. On February 18 the German advance into Russia was renewed and the Dvina river crossed at Dvinsk. Meeting with little opposition, the German advance soon reached Petrograd and the Bolshevik government decided to accept Germany's peace terms. Foreign (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3.)

GERMANS IN A RAGE

London, March 15.—The notice served on Holland by Great Britain and the United States regarding the taking over of Dutch ships in allied ports has thrown the German press into a towering rage. The Copenhagen correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company cables. The newspapers demand that Germany take the most drastic counter-measures if Holland gives way to the allies.

VON HINDENBURG HAS SPOKEN

Amsterdam, March 15.—According to news received here Field Marshal von Hindenburg has stated in an interview in Berlin that the entente had shown an unresponsive attitude toward Germany's peace intentions and that the great German offensive therefore must go on.

ALLIES MUST ASSIST AND COMBAT THE PENETRATION BY HUNS INTO RUSSIA

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Thursday, March 15.—Debate on the question of Japanese intervention in Siberia in the house of commons today brought from Foreign Secretary Balfour the declaration that German penetration in Russia must be combatted. The allies point of view was that they should help Russia in protecting herself against Germany. Although he did not think that Germany would send an army to Vladivostok, he said he had absolute faith in Japan's loyalty in carrying out any decision reached by the allies.

Discussing the situation in Russia Mr. Balfour said:

"If Russia had not been at war it would have taken many years to complete the beneficent course of the revolution. When autocracy fell almost without a blow, Russia immediately fell in chaos.

"It must inevitably take time before we will know clearly how much of old Russia, if any, ought to cease to form a part of new Russia, and how new Russia will be constituted. It is a very different process in time of peace and prosperity but how you carry it on in time of war with a re-

SHOULD THANK HIM AFTER DONATION OF $1,000,000

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 15.—King George sent today for Henry P. Davison, chairman of the American Red Cross war council, who arrived in England a few days ago, and thanked him for the contribution of $1,000,000 made recently by the American to the British Red Cross. Mr. Davison was a guest of the Prince of Wales at luncheon.

REDUCE DRINKING ONE-THIRD

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 15.—Consumption of intoxicating liquors in Great Britain, owing to the reductions in taxation by the government, is now only one-third of what it was four years ago, Premier Lloyd George declared in an address to the Free Churchmen at the city temple today when challenged about the drink traffic.

No spirits were being manufactured at all, he said, and anyone who four years ago had predicted such a thing would not have been believed.

The premier reiterated that if it came to a question of choosing between bread and beer the government would not hesitate a moment.

IS GERMANY KIDDING THEM?

Amsterdam, Thursday, March 14.—Active negotiations are in progress for a reconciliation between Germany and Poland, and a new solution of the Polish situation will be announced shortly, according to the Krujar Polesky of Warsaw.

FAIL TO FASTEN ANY BLAME ON SHIP'S PILOT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Hull, N. S., March 15.—The charge of manslaughter against Francis Mackay, who piloted the French munitions ship Mont Blanc at the time of her collision here with the Belgian relief ship Imo was dismissed today by Judge Russell.

The court held there seemed to be no evidence upon which an unbiased tribunal could hold Mackay criminally culpable. Under the ruling the pilot was discharged from custody. He was arrested in February upon the recommendation of a government commission which had investigated the disaster. Judge Russell in a lengthy summary of the evidence emphasized that testimony had been given to indicate that the Imo was on the wrong side of the harbor at the time of the collision. The explosion which occurred when the vessels crashed caused the loss of about 1500 lives.

MEN IN AUSTRIA ARE REPORTED AS BEING ON STRIKE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Copenhagen, March 15.—The men in the workshops of the Austrian railways have struck and refused to obey the orders of the military to return to work, the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger states.

The strike, it is added, is spreading to other factories.

FLOOD SHORT LIVED.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Pittsburgh, March 15.—The Ohio river passed the flood stage here soon after last midnight. The weather bureau predicted an additional two feet rise by noon when the crest of the flood was expected to reach here.

Reports from stations up the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers showed the streams were falling and that the flood would be short lived.

morless, preserving and quite unscrupulous enemy at the gate?

"There will be classes, some from patriotic, others from selfish motives, ready to welcome any thing promising a semblance of stability and order in the government. When that time comes I can imagine Germany trying to re-establish possibly the old form of autocracy government. We should then have Russia shorn of some of its fairest provinces and with a kind of autocracy far worse than the old autocracy, because it would lean upon a foreign power for continued existence. If that comes to pass all our dreams of Russian development and Russian liberty would be gone and Russia would become a mere outpost of the central powers.

"That is the real difficulty of dealing with the problems raised in this debate. Mr. Lees-Smith's speech is a strong attack on what he conceives as the government's policy with regard to Japan and Siberia. It is entirely oblivious of the facts I have just brought before the house and is based on a profound misunderstanding of what any human being had ever thought, contrived or desired with regard to allied intervention. Japanese or other, in Russian affairs."

H. B. Lees-Smith, a Liberal, in questioning Mr. Balfour as to the British attitude had declared that if Japan entered Russian territory and occupied it at the mandate of the alliance, it followed with almost absolute certainty that this territory would not be returned.

"I cannot let this debate end," said Mr. Balfour in conclusion, "without repudiating to the full Mr. Lees-Smith's suggestion that Japan would be moved by selfish and dishonorable motives in any course which may be discussed in Japan, either among her statesmen or with the allies.

"Japan has behaved with perfect loyalty and it she gives promise."

SPARED TO AVENGE TUSCANIA'S DEAD—SURVIVORS OF LOST TRANSPORT AT HOSPITAL IN IRELAND

American soldiers at Foyle Hill hospital, Londonderry, Ireland.

Cured of the ills they contracted when a U-boat's torpedo struck the transport Tuscania off the north coast of Ireland last month, throwing them into the icy waters, these Sammies are ready to continue their journey to Berlin, stopping on the western front en route to avenge the killing of 100 of their comrades. The survivors with their Irish nurses and doctors are grouped on the steps of the Foyle Hill hospital at Londonderry, Ireland.

MAY RETURN MEN UNDER A NEW RULING

Selects Discharged From a Cantonment May Yet See Service

NOT RELEASED PERMANENTLY FOR PHYSICAL DISABILITY

Regimental Commanders Anxiously Await the Arrival of New Selects

(Associated Press Telegram)
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., March 15.—Under a ruling of the draft law a number of men from western Pennsylvania counties who were sent here last fall with the first increments of the draft, and who were subsequently discharged on grounds of physical disability, have again been inducted into service in the national army. Greater laxity in physical requirements is assigned by authorities here as the reason for the return of the men. So far as could be ascertained no Ohioans who have been discharged from the service have been sent back by their local boards.

Officers pointed out that the fact that a man being discharged by the authorities here does not release him permanently from the army service. Two kinds of discharges on grounds of physical disability are given here—one of which is permanent and the other not. A surgeon's certificate of physical disability is considered as a permanent discharge, while the ordinary discharge must be acted upon by the (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3.)

BRITISH AIRMEN WRECK FACTORIES IN GERMAN CITY

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 15.—Monday's air raid on Coblenz caused very heavy damage in that city, according to German reports, says the Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Amsterdam.

Two munition factories were reported burning, he states, and vast quantities of explosives were continually going off, rendering the efforts of the firemen to extinguish the flames unavailing.

On the other hand Reuters Amsterdam correspondent quotes the Cologne Gazette as saying that the hostile airmen who attacked the town of Coblenz at noon on Monday dropped about ten bombs which caused only slight material damage, none of which was military. Two women were killed and 20 persons injured, the newspaper stated.

The raid on Coblenz was by British aviators. They were officially reported by London on March 12 to have dropped a ton of bombs on this city of nearly 50,000 population, attacking factories, stations and barracks. All the objectives were reported hit. Two large fires after an explosion being caused.

LEAVES FOR CAMP.
J. P. Allardice of the Central Power Co. and formerly of Canton, left this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for Columbus to report to army officials there before going to Camp Stevens, Mass., where he has been assigned to the 33rd engineering corps.

LONGEST CASUALTY LIST YET ISSUED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 15.—General Pershing's casualty list today, it is learned at the war department, will be longer than any previously issued and for that reason may not be available for publication before tomorrow morning. There is no outward indication of what longer casualty list indicates, although American troops in the last few days have been active in an offensive against the German trenches.

REPORT 20,000 KILLED IN A FIERCE BATTLE

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 15.—Fierce battles between Soviet adherents and natives have occurred in Turkestan, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Petrograd, under Wednesday's date. More than 20,000 casualties are reported to have resulted.

SHIPS COLLIDE: 26 ARE MISSING

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 15.—Twenty-six persons are missing in consequence of a collision between a naval vessel and the British steamship Rathmore. Survivors have been landed at Kings-town, Ireland, by destroyers.

The Rathmore, a vessel of 1569 tons gross owned in Dublin, was bound from Holy Head, Wales, across St. George's Channel for Dublin. There were 640 passengers on board. The collision occurred in mid-channel. The Rathmore, badly damaged, was towed to Dublin.

ENGLISH PRELATE VISITS CLEVELAND

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cleveland, March 15.—The Most Rev. Cosmo Gordon Lang, archbishop of York, and by special government request a member of the British war mission now visiting the United States, arrived in Cleveland this morning for a thirteen hour stay.

The prelate addressed a mass meeting at noon, telling of conditions at the front, from which he recently returned and of the part the United States must take in the war. He urged speed of operations that will tend to make this country a quickly decisive factor in the war.

The archbishop will be the guest of honor at a banquet this evening.

TRUE AMERICANS, THESE TWO AMBULANCE DRIVERS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 15.—Two American ambulance drivers—Charles B. Kendall, of Cambridge, Mass., and James F. Brown, of Boston—have been commended by both French and American army officers for bravery in removing wounded men. Kendall continued his work after he was wounded and Brown worked for 48 hours in one of the most dangerous sectors on the American front.

Both men were transferred recently to the American sanitary corps after several months service in the French armies.

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.)
From Russia today comes news of a vote by delegates to the all-Russian Congress of Soviets at Moscow overwhelmingly in favor of ratifying the peace treaty dictated by Germany to the Russian delegates at Brest-Litovsk.

The wording of the meagre advice leaves the significance of the ballot somewhat in doubt, but it appears probable that the vote of 453 to 30 recorded was cast by the members of the majority of Bolshevik party in caucus. If this is the fact the final decision on the ratification of the treaty had not yet been taken when the dispatch was filed yesterday. The forecasts in Moscow, dispatches of earlier date, however, was that ultimate ratification seemed probable and the Bolshevik vote would indicate an extremely strong current running in that direction.

12 FARMERS ARE ARRESTED; SAID TO BE MOONSHINERS

Womble, Ark., March 15.—Twelve farmers chained together are marching to Little Rock today in charge of fifty internal revenue officers who shipped into the Montgomery county hills yesterday and arrested the men on charges of making "moonshine" whiskey.

In addition to being chained together, as a further precaution against an ambush the prisoners were forced to march on foot ahead of the officers for a distance of twenty-five miles over the Ozark hills to the nearest railroad station from where they are to be taken to Little Rock for arraignment.

COLD WEATHER CHECKS FLOOD

Detroit, March 15.—Dispatches from various cities in lower Michigan which sustained heavy damage from floods yesterday showed that the sharp drop in temperature last night had checked the rising waters. Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Eaton Rapids, Flint and other cities reported their rivers were receding, but a dispatch from Grand Rapids said the Grand river was still rising.

SERBIA WILL STAND FIRM.
Bern, Switzerland, Wednesday, March 15.—The peace treaties that have been signed by Russia and Rumania have not caused any change in Serbia's attitude, M. Gruitsche, Serbia's diplomatic representative here has informed a Swiss interviewer. All the rumors in regard to a separate peace on the part of Serbia are unfounded, he declared.

DECORATED FOR BRAVERY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, Wednesday, March 13.—General Mordacq, head of the military cabinet of the minister of war, visited today the hospitals containing the wounded from Monday night's air-raid and bestowed the coronation of the Legion of Honor upon Dr. Mihit, the chief physician of one of the hospitals and war crosses with palm upon Mr. Mathis, the director of the hospital and five women nurses, who continued to work with the utmost coolness and devotion in caring for the wounded during the bombardment.

MOSCOW FAMED IN HISTORY IS AGAIN RUSSIAN CAPITAL

(Associated Press Telegram)
Moscow, Tuesday, March 12.—Moscow has again become the official capital of Russia.

It was Peter the Great who moved the seat of government from Moscow to Petrograd, his name city, which he founded, and after 200 years the government has been transferred by its present head, Nikolai Lenine, back to the historic capital in the heart of Russia.

Lenina and virtually all the government commissioners except Leon Troitzky, arrived here tonight and officially opened the various ministries today, preparatory to the session of the all-Russian congress of March 14. Many of the buildings in the ancient Kremlin, the leading hotels and other buildings were requisitioned to accommodate the officials.

BREST-LITOVSK IS ANYTHING BUT PEACELIKE NOW

(Associated Press Telegram)
Petrograd, Jan. 30.—(By Mail)—Little but ruins remains of Brest-Litovsk, formerly one of Russia's most strongly fortified towns. (The peace treaty ratified by the all-Russian Congress at Moscow was drawn up at Brest-Litovsk.) Before retiring the Russian troops blew up the town. The only buildings left are a church, a moving picture theatre and a club for army officers. Otherwise the desolation is complete. All civilians have long since departed the ruins town, the only occupants of whose wrecked houses are a few German soldiers stationed there.

New York, March 15.—Mothers' Day, May 12, this year will be in reality a "mothers and soldiers' day," according to plans announced here today by Miss Anna Jarvis.

LOCALIZATION OF NATIONAL ARMY AND GUARD UNITS CANNOT BE MAINTAINED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 15.—The neighborhood character of national army and national guard units is certain to vanish as the war progresses, in the opinion of army officials. British and French forces already have undergone the process, and it now is being felt by American front-line divisions, as the direct result of three-line system of defense, held indispensable by General Pershing and the allied chieftains to keep the front line at full fighting strength.

Plans projected by the general staff for erecting a replacement system to handle nearly a quarter of a million men, this year, it is understood, are founded on acceptance of the fact that localization cannot be maintained.

Eventually, it is believed, that enlisted men of the regulars, national army and national guard, will be intermixed throughout all divisions at the front.

Congress expressed a decided preference for localization of the national army in the selective service law, but many officers have maintained insistently that it would be impossible to handle the army except as one great unit. The facts promise to bear out that view, it is said, and with the replacement of casualties, the welding of the expeditionary forces into one homogeneous unit has already begun.

In the opinion rendered last September, acting Judge Advocate General Ansell sustained absolutely the legal right of the department to transfer officers and men among the regulars, national army and national guard as found necessary. The selective service law gave only a suggestion of independence to the three branches of the service, he said.

The six division corps organization, adopted by General J. J. Pershing, was devised to give a corps commander a two-division front to hold, backed up by two divisions on the second line and two divisions on the

WILL NOT USE AT ONCE VOLUNTEERS FOR SHIPYARDS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 15.—Men who volunteered for shipyard work will not be called in any large numbers for some time, the department of labor announced today. The men called will be chiefly from the unskilled class, unless they are skilled mechanics, and those now holding jobs are advised to stick to them. The public service reserve now has 200,000 men enrolled. They are being classified by trades.

Two Killed and Number Injured When Cars Leave Rails In Deep Cut

SOLDIERS ASSIST IN RESCUE WORK AND RENDER FIRST AID

Train Bound From Philadelphia to Chicago, Due Here at 12:50 P. M.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Harrisburg, Pa., March 15.—Two persons were killed and 28 injured, only a few seriously, early today when a landslide in the Elizabethtown cut, 19 miles east of Harrisburg, struck the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Chicago express on the Pennsylvania railroad. Miss Fena Palmer of Morgantown, W. Va., was crushed to death in a sleeping car in which Miss Vera Ravenscroft of Pittsburgh was fatally injured, dying on the relief train which was sent from Harrisburg. Conductor E. E. Edwards of this city was probably fatally hurt.

It is estimated that three hundred tons of earth and rock fell into the cut, striking two sleeping cars in the middle of the train. One huge boulder, weighing about 20 tons, struck the end of one car, lifted it up and the mass slid under the train, carrying the two sleeping cars, containing over 50 persons, over the tracks.

Charles Palmer, father of Miss Palmer, was among the injured. He learned of his daughter's death while being cared for in a hospital here. Other relatives were on the train. Most of the injured persons were given attention here. A squad of soldiers on the undamaged part of the train gave first aid.

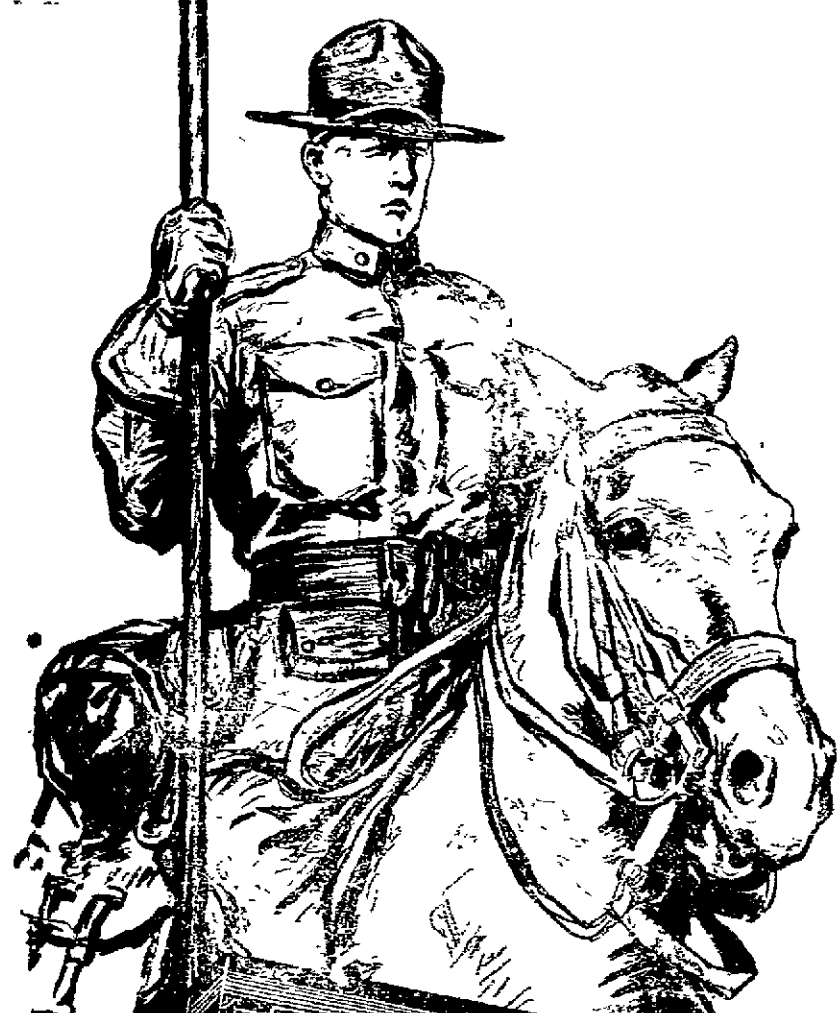

FLOOD SITUATION NOT SERIOUS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cincinnati, March 15.—With fair weather predicted for the next 36 hours the flood situation at Cincinnati did not appear so serious today. The weather bureau in its official bulletin states that the crest of the rise is figured at between 52 to 54 feet to be attained some time Sunday. The Ohio is falling from Parkersburg to Point Pleasant and this is expected to give the water from the Kanawha district opportunity to pass this harbor before the rise from Pittsburgh reaches Cincinnati.

Minister Trotsky refused to go to Brest-Litovsk and Premier Lenin sent Zinovieff, a close follower of his.

The pacifist policy of Premier Lenin brought a break in the Bolshevik ranks and Trotsky resigned several days ago. This cleavage apparently had no effect on Lenin's mastery of the Congress of Soviets.

By the peace terms Russia must give up Poland, Courland, Livonia, Estonia and the Ukraine. In Asia Minor the Russians are compelled to retire from Armenia and to cede to the Turks the Russian districts of Batumi, Kars and Erivan.

Russia must renounce all claims to the occupied territories in Europe. Germany and Austro-Hungary to decide the fate of these regions in agreement with their populations. The Russian army must be demobilized and Russian warships are to be disarmed.

More important to the central powers is the reopening of navigation in the Black and Baltic Sea and the signing by Russia under compulsion of a new commercial treaty, with guarantees of a most favored nation treatment, at least until 1925. The Bolsheviks also proposed to put an end to all propaganda and agitation within the central empires and in occupied territories under their control.

NO OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION RECEIVED BY GOVERNMENT
Washington, March 15.—Aside from press dispatches, Washington had no information today on the decision of the all-Russian congress Soviets at Moscow ratifying the German peace terms. Nothing had come either from Ambassador Francis at Volgodga or the American consul general at Moscow.

Officials had no means of knowing whether the action was taken before or after receipt of President Wilson's message to the people of Russia promising American aid in obtaining for Russia full independence from German aggression. The message was sent March 11 and the congress decided to ratify the peace with Germany March 14.

Its receipt has not been acknowledged by the American consul general at Moscow by whom it was to have been delivered.

local draft board before it is permanent. Until the local board does take such action men who have been discharged for physical reasons, under the ordinary form, are still liable to call by the draft authorities for service in the army.

Officers are awaiting the arrival of the next large increment of men, curious to see how many men who have been here before will be returned. So far as could be ascertained none of the men who have been returned so far have been deemed other than physically fit by the examining surgeons.

No word has been received here relative to the arrival of the new selects. Authorities have been expecting new draftees ever since Christmas, at which time official information from Washington promised new selects weekly to help fill up the depleted organizations to their normal strength.

With thousands of men transferred in the past two months to other camps and overseas a number of the line regiments have barely sufficient men to carry on their routine schedules. Many of the companies in the line organizations are as low as 100 men. New selects are anxiously awaited by regimental commanders to enable them to resume full working schedules.

The new men who are due before Easter and shortly thereafter will be sent directly to the 158th depot brigade where they will be examined, given their inoculations and vaccination, will be equipped and outfitted and given training preliminary to being assigned to a definite organization. There are sufficient accommodations to take care of upwards of 10,000 men, officers say.

The ground glass scare loomed up on Camp Sherman's horizon again today. Scouts in the 329th infantry claimed to have found glass in candy marketed by an eastern concern. An investigation is being made of the matter.

Three organizations were released from scarlet fever today and a like number were isolated. Those released are: Company E, 308th engineers; Company C, 320th infantry; and Company M, 329th infantry. Company B, 308th engineers; Company B, 320th infantry, and the headquarters company of the 329th infantry were quarantined.

TESTING STATION NOW IN OPERATION

The seed corn testing station is now in operation at the Weiant & Son green house, east of the city. This station is under government supervision. During the past two weeks more than 7,000 envelopes have been received and the corn tested. The farm agent expects the number to be much larger as the planting season comes nearer. The supply of envelopes furnished by the government is exhausted and the local bureau will have to use some from the local office for which a charge of ten cents a hundred will be made, but if the farmers wish to furnish their own envelopes they may and there will be no charge for the testing. The local station is the wealth to be established in this state and for this reason the government is unable to supply more envelopes.

express on the Pennsylvania railroad, due in Harrisburg at 1:25 a. m., from Philadelphia, was struck by boulders while passing through the cut near Elizabethtown, 17 miles east of here, at 1 o'clock this morning, the rocks wrecking two sleeping cars and causing the deaths of two women. Fifteen other passengers were injured.

The relief train brought 13 of the injured to the Harrisburg hospital. They are:

Albert Shefflin, Jersey City, cut on face and head.

William Kilpatrick, Morningside Drive, N. Y., a professor at Columbia University, cut on leg and body.

Charles DeForest, New York City, cut about head and face.

Isadore Risenberger, New York City, lacerated scalp and face.

Achibald Stooran, Montreal, Canada, cut about face.

Alice Manning, New York City, cut on left arm and body.

Walter Croft, Braddock, Pa., cut on head.

H. H. Steinmetz, Dyer, N. J., fractured clavicle and abrasions.

Lewis Herchberger, Ford City, Pa., slight cuts.

Hugh Soles, Turtle Creek, Pa., slight cuts.

Israel Lebenberger, Youngstown, O., cuts about face.

Thomas Shone, New York City, cuts on both arms.

Charles Palmer, Morgantown, W. V., cuts on both legs.

E. W. Forest, Lancansville, Pa., Leon Cohen, St. Louis, cut about the head.

Geo. K. Wright, East Liberty, Pittsburgh, Pa., cut about head.

The wrecked cars were jammed against the side of the cut, making the work of taking out the dead and injured very difficult. The first two cars and the last three remained on the rails, but the sleeping car next to those wrecked, jumped the track and its passengers were badly shaken up.

A number of soldiers, who were in the smoking car, rendered first aid to the injured and assisted in the rescue work until arrival of relief trains from this city and Lancaster. Railroad officials who went to the scene of the wreck reported the cars as badly broken and that it would be hours before it could be cleared away. The wrecked cars carried a total of 46 passengers.

An unidentified woman died on the first two cars of the train which were run to this city with uninjured passengers and those slightly hurt. The other dead were taken to Lancaster, where an inquest will be held.

E. E. Edwards of Harrisburg, conductor of the wrecked train, suffered fractures of both legs and internal injuries, and is in a serious condition. None of the passengers were able to tell any story of the accident, except that there was a terrific crash and the two sleepers toppled over. Sergeant Ralph Knoe, 45th infantry, who was with the soldiers said the shock threw men in the first cars out of their seats. The work of the soldiers was highly praised by the passengers.

Residents at Elizabethtown threw one of the houses to the injured and the Masonic home sent automobiles and offered aid.

The passengers who escaped injury were sent west on trains made up here.

Railroad officials say the steel cars prevented heavy loss of life. It is estimated that one of the rocks weighs 20 tons and will have to be dynamited to remove it from the roadbed. The two sleeping coaches were thrown across four tracks and it is thought that the old wooden type they would have been broken to splinters.

Practically all of the injured who required hospital attention were in the wrecked coaches.

A detail of soldiers from the aviation storehouse at Middletown was hastened to the wreck in trucks to render assistance to the injured.

The body of one of the victims was identified as that of Miss Palmer of Morgantown, whose father, Charles Palmer, is on the injured list and is in the Harrisburg hospital. When brought here early today Mr. Palmer asked for his daughter, and search revealed that she had been killed.

WRECKED TRAIN REACHES THIS CITY ON SCHEDULE

The wrecked Pennsy train arrived in Newark on time, having been made up at Harrisburg, and reached this city at 12:50 this afternoon. Train officials stated that they knew nothing of the wreck except what they were told when they assumed their run at Pittsburgh, and what they learned from passengers, a number of whom were on the train and who were badly shaken up.

Dodd's Kidney Pills Relieve After 20 Years' Suffering

Mrs. James Dotz of Zanesville, O., is one of the thousands of people who in the past 40 years have been relieved of the agonies of kidney trouble by taking Dodd's Kidney Pills. Only recently we received an unsolicited letter from Mrs. Dotz, which reads as follows:

"For twenty long years I suffered with heart disease and bladder inflammation. I had frequent chills, cramps in the muscles and suffered from headache and backache. I was often dizzy and had flashes of light and floating spots before my eyes. I could get no help until I started to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. Then I began to improve right away and in a few boxes of these Pills completed the cure.

"My little boy also had kidney trouble and was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. I hope thousands of others, suffering as I have, hear of your wonderful remedy."

Mighty few people realize in time
that kidney trouble is making its advances upon their health. They put off treatment—they say, "Oh, I'll be all right in a day or two." And the malady tightens its grip. Result: Bright's Disease, hospital treatment, doctor's bills
—often death.

GERMAN AIRMAN'S "VISIT" OVER THE CITY OF LONDON

(Correspondence Associated Press.)
Amsterdam, Feb. 25.—Lieutenant Gruner, of the German aerial service has written an account of a "visit," which he claims to have made recently to London. His story, which is printed in the Berlin newspapers follows:

"The English coast must come into sight soon. Sure enough there it is in sharp outline. Soon we shall be near enough to realize where we are.
Slowly, quite slowly, we approach it.
All is peace and quiet. Now the coast lines are perpendicularly beneath us.
We are nearing the goal of our heart's desire. The English are awaiting for us, but we are not disturbed.
On we go. Now and then a searchlight picks us up. Now and then a shot flares out at us. But notwithstanding these little hindrances, we press on toward our goal. There it is, London! A brilliant wreath of searchlights sets off the prize from afar.

"I consult my map and compass,
and the order is given. 'Cross London from north to south and then veer to eastward.' Beneath us we can see and hear that our presence is detected. Lights burst forth and outside the muzzle-flashes of anti-aircraft guns. Searchlights stab the sky, first, slowly, carefully, anxiously, then wildly. Now the ghostly white stab is directed straight at our ship and envelopes us.

"Shrapnel bursts fiercely all around us. Shells tear at us like birds of prey with flaming eyes. Fore and aft, below, above, everywhere, they scream and roar. It is hellish, yet beautiful! And loud above the crash and scream of the shells we hear the deep bass of our faithful bombs, dropping steadily on their appointed objectives and always also the orchestral accompaniment of our whirring propellers. We are doing things in London, all right. There, on our starboard, is a mighty cavern, and there, to port side, another. Midway between them comes a series of explosions, probably a munitions factory. We are certainly letting them have it this time.

"But things are getting hot for us.
Away from this inhospitable neighborhood. A caressing west wind is at our back, and amid protecting clouds
we start homeward. At the coast another still heavier but equally futile bombardment awaits us. Home coast beckons and before we know it we are safe again on friendly soil."

flow of casuals, introduced from the United States at the third line, still further diluting their original neighborhood complexion.

Out of this situation has grown
the plan to form separate replacement divisions in the United States where the arm of the service for which preliminary training, not the state from which the soldier comes,
would be the factor governing mobilization. Infantry men would all be trained at one camp, artillery men at another, machine gunners at another, and so on. Men who had been under training six months would be available for assignment to replacement detachments bound abroad.
Their places would be taken by new drafted men or by volunteers gathered through the recruiting service.
That would extend the replacement system back to the civilian population in orderly, workable fashion, it is argued.

The task of feeding into a state unit only men from that state, officers declare, is impossible. They insist that localization has already interfered with the efficiency and added enormously to the transportation and other problems. If it is to be carried on and applied to the expeditionary forces, 58 separate recruit depots—one for each state—
would have to be set up on this side and 48 in France, with no possibility of accomplishing any considerable degree of localization even then.

OHIO GUARD UNITS WILL BE SEPARATED

Columbus, March 15.—Decision of the war department to no longer
observe the "neighborhood character" of divisional guard and national army units, is the final answer to pleas from Ohio that her two divisions be kept intact as long as in service. Ohio has one national guard division at Camp Sheridan, Montgomery, Ala., and one national army
division at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O.

The first protest from the state to the war department was made when national guardsmen were picked from practically every unit to become members of the 166th infantry—formerly the old Fourth infantry, which now is in the front line trenches in France. Appeals included one from Governor Cox, who asked, on behalf of Ohio, that the "local character" of the Ohio units
be maintained.

ALLIES MUST

with regard to Russian integrity or on any question connected with Russia, she would keep them as she has kept all promises she has made in connection with this war or in any great public transactions with the United States and the allies. I draw no distinction in this matter between Japan and the allies who make up the great body of the belligerents on the entente side.

"The decisions the allies may have to take will not be without difficulty
but the principal upon which those decisions may be arrived at will be neither ungenerous, unfair nor hostile to Russia and the Russian revolution. Our object is to see Russia strong, intact, secure and free and if these objects can be obtained then and then only, will the Russian revolution bring forth all the fruits its best friends desire to see."

ALLEGES DEFENDANT PROMISED MARRIAGE UPON HER REQUEST

A petition was filed today in common pleas court by Nellie Smith against David Hall on the charge of breach of promise. The plaintiff says
the defendant promised to marry her at any time upon her request but failed to do so and has married another woman, and on account of which she has been damaged in the sum of $5000 for which amount she seeks judgment.

INTERPRETER NECESSARY IN POLICE COURT TODAY

Two factions of Italians were airing a disagreement in the mayor's court this morning when the case of Toby Trubiano, against Albina Maranette, was heard at the mayor's office.
Toby charged Miss Albina Maran-ette with provoking a breach of the peace. All sides were represented by attorneys and the city Solicitor Henry Ashcroft, but both sides started talking so rapidly and in their own tongue that the attorneys were outdistanced and the case was continued until 1 o'clock this afternoon, when an interpreter will be in attendance.

It is perhaps possible to kill with kindness, but that isn't the German way.

29 SELECTS WILL LEAVE NEWARK ON FRIDAY, MARCH 29

The city quota of men for the selective service, the movement of which will start on March 29, has been given as 29 men. The local board received instructions to that effect this morning from Adjutant General Wood. While it is not definitely known, the supposition is that they will be sent to Camp Sherman.
The county quota will be 24, according to a statement of a member of the Granville draft board this afternoon, but names of those to be sent will not be available for several days.

GETTING READY FOR SPRING CLEAN UP

Mayor Atherton will soon announce the date for the spring clean up, which is held every year.
Practically the same plan as observed last year, of apportioning the town into zones and assigning wagons for the different days will be made. The citizens will be asked to co-operate by cleaning the premises and ridding all alleys and yards of rubbish and debris which has collected during the winter months.

The circulation of The Newark Advocate has been audited by the Audit Bureau of Circulations, the recognized authority on expert circulation examination.

VACANT LOTS.

One of the common obstacles to town improvement is the condition of vacant lots. An unoccupied piece of land is an invitation to disorder. People throw litter upon it. The neighbors often use it for dumps. Grass and weeds grow long, and the place becomes an eye-sore, discreditable to the neighborhood.

If a man is holding a lot of land for higher prices he hates to spend money on it for care. Very likely he does not live anywhere near the land, so does not feel interested in its proper care, and often does not know how disorderly it is.

In a good many places the city ordinances now require that such a lot shall be kept reasonably well-cleaned of weeds. It seems unfair, if a man is unwilling to sell his land at prevailing prices, that he should maintain it in a disorderly condition. In that case he takes the position that he won't improve it himself, nor will he allow anyone else to do so.

Anyone who has vacant land in a residence section would promote his own interest if he would plant a few trees and shrubs on it along the borders, so that when houses are erected the development of it would be well under way.

The thing to do now is for every owner of vacant land to offer it to the food conservation or municipal authorities for gardening purposes. The more land is offered, the more gardens we shall have, the more food will be raised. Unused land is like money hoarded. It is so much agricultural capital lying idle in a time of great need. When once a piece of land is taken for garden use, unsightly collections are not permitted. Even if a garden be not considered a beautiful object, it has its own attractiveness of color, and the sight of active industry upon it is a cheerful one.

Two factory workers in West Newark have complained to The Advocate that certain vacant lots which they tried to lease for garden purposes were held at exorbitant figures by the owners. This is a time when owners of vacant lots should be willing to have the ground put under cultivation at a reasonable price for it is very important that much ground be cultivated and people should be encouraged to plant gardens this spring and not discourage.

OUR BURDEN OF DEBT.

One of the methods by which the German plotters throw sand in our machine, is to bear down heavily on the terrible burden of debt we are laying up. They talk as if money were being thrown away like so much dirt.

That is old stuff. All opponents of human advance have always used it. When the American school system was being built, the mossbacks used to sing this same old song. A schoolhouse would cost a terrible sum of money. It would not be paid for in ten or twenty years. It was a burden laying its hand on every man's income. Yet our people continued to build schoolhouses, and were never sorry for it.

So with our free-spending of money to ward off the terrible German menace. It will cost a good sum of money. But it is cheap for what we get.

When a man's wife and his children are stricken with some terrible disease, he does not consider cost much then. He pays out his good money, for which he has toiled hard and long, with the same freedom with which Uncle Sam is spending his now. Even if it takes all his savings he is willing to do it to save his family.

Our national burdens seem light in comparison. It is now estimated that the government is spending about a billion a month on the war. It is proposed to pay about a third of it in taxes. That means about $8,000,000,000 new debt in a year. The wealth of the United States is estimated at about $200,000,000,000. That is, it would take 25 years of war to use up our national wealth.

And even then this makes no account that this war will be largely paid out of the savings of the people. As Germany already owes $31,000,000,000.000 on a national wealth of $80,000,000,000, it is easy to see which will crack first. Wherefore it is no time to cry-baby on the money question.

FIGHT TO THE END.

(Leslie's.)
Every pacifist is an enemy. Every one who stands for a negotiated peace is giving aid and comfort to our foes.

A peace that would leave untouched the vital issues of the war would be only an armistice.

Within two decades the world would be plunged into a still bloodier war, and our children would be driven to finish the struggle for freedom which, in our cowardice, we left incomplete.

Woe to England, France and America if they leave such a legacy to the next generation!

Already we have talked too much about peace. The frequency of our peace definitions, Berlin and Vienna interpret as signs of weakness.

Among the armies at the front there are no illusions. Soldiers know but one way to win. The allied armies in France know they can make Germany taste the bitterness of defeat.

If Presidents and Premiers had less to say about peace the end would sooner be in sight.

Germany and Austria are whipped to their knees. All the world knows it. The Teutonic military lords know it, but by a gigantic bluff they hope to discourage the enemy.

The more we talk about peace the more we play their game. Famine and economic ruin stare the Central Powers in the face. Their armies may still be fed, but even a Hindenberg cannot maintain indefinitely a strong fighting army with a home background of underfed or starving wives and children.

If we quit now "all the dead," as former Attorney-General James M. McKask says, "will have died in vain." A negotiated peace will mean the end of all a liberal civilization holds dear.

"Nothing we may have to endure now," says Rudyard Kipling, "will weigh one featherweight compared with what we shall most certainly have to suffer if for any cause we fail of victory."

The most dangerous feature of the war situation is not submarine ruthlessness or the lack of tonnage, but the persistent discussion of peace.

We must end the war by fighting, not by peace addresses. Thus only can we secure a peace worthy of the name.

THE CASUALTY LISTS.

(Columbus Dispatch.)
The government has decided that it will not give out the casualty lists from France. That is, it will not give out for general publication the names and addresses of the soldiers killed or wounded in battle. The numbers will be printed from time to time, but the details will be lacking. However, the relatives of every soldier killed, injured or captured will be immediately notified by telegraph.

And that is the important thing—that the relatives be informed. In a sense, it is nobody else's business, but it is very much the business of the relatives. There will no occasion for relatives of soldiers worrying when they read that a certain number of boys are missing, for if their own happened to be among the number they will have been notified before the announcement is made in the papers.

All of the nations at war have found this to be the proper method of reporting casualties. It leaves the enemy wholly in the dark as to the location of certain units of the service. It does not enable the enemy to determine what effect a certain shell had, nor what was the result of a given movement which would be the case if the full details were printed.

The United States can not conduct this war in its own way. It must be governed by the experience of other nations. Our allies have had nearly four years of experience in the game, and they have learned a lot in that time. We would be foolish to go ahead and learn by disagreeable experience what they have learned, when we can accept their experience as our own.

The people who delight in looking on the dark side forget that if it wasn't for hope there would be no disappointment.

THE ADVOCATE'S LATITUDINE

Be diligent and faithful, patient and hopeful, one and all of you; and may we all know, at all times, that verily the eternal rules above us, and that nothing finally wrong has happened or can happen.—Carlyle.

Wet or Dry.
They use liquid measure when measuring beer.
A very appropriate thing, it is clear. Yet, were I to measure my thirst for this booze, it would seem that dry measure is what I should use.

Aunt Caline says. Owen Cash is about the most fitful man I have ever saw. Wednesday I am Maggie Zeen went down there late in the afternoon to see Owen's wife which is Iva and there she was a-standin' over the stove a-cookin' in a chicken so we set rite down where she was at so's not to throw her back none in her work. Pretty soon Owen come a-stumpin' in with a pale o' water an' he sort o' sniffs up his nose an' says he, "Cookin' chicken?" he says. "Yes," says Iva. At that he walks over an' lifts up the lid an' says he, "Yer a-fryin' it down brown," he says. "an' you no dang well I don't like my chicken cooked noways septin' stewed," he says, "with a lotta gravy." "Well," says Iva, "I've stewed chicken an' et stewed chicken fer fifteen year," she says, "an' I like it fried down brown an' I'm a-goin' to hev it that-away onct," she says. At that Owen got perfect pail with rath an' says he, "Woman, this is too much!" he says. "I will bare no moar," he says. "I will put a end to awh this!" An' he went out an' slammed the door. Pretty soon he calls out, "Iva, where in tarnation did you put that there closeline?" "What do you want o' the closeline this time in the weak?" she says, vurry much surprised. "I want it to hang myself with," he snaps out. "Oh," says she, "it's a-hangin' on a nake back o' the tool chest," she says. An' bless you, if he didn't go an' do what he said he would. The next morning when Iva went out to the colehouse to get her kindan' there was Owen a-hangin' by his neck as nat'ral as life an' it give Iva sich a turn she couldn't eat no breakfast skursely.

Did You Know
That two pounds of seasoned wood have a fuel value equal to one pound of coal? One cord of hickory, oak, beech, birch, hard maple, ash, locust, longleaf pine or cherry, equal a ton of coal. One and one-half cords of shortleaf pine, hemlock, red gum, Douglas fir, spruce, or soft maple, equal one ton of coal. Two cords of cedar, redwood, poplar, catalpa, Norway pine, cypress, basswood, spruce, or white pine, equal one ton of coal. Resinous woods have greater fuel value per unit volume of wood and has other advantages: it burns evenly and holds the heat. Where wood is to be burned in a stove or furnace, intended for coal, it will be found desirable to cover the grate partly with sheet iron or fire brick in order to reduce the draft. If this is not done the wood is wasted by being consumed too fast and makes a very hot fire which may damage the fire box of the furnace.

"FIVE YEARS OR LONGER."

(Cincinnati Enquirer.)
Somewhere or other we have read that the "authorities" in Washington were basing their activities on the theory that the war will last "five years or longer."

We lost a breath or two, but were not at all surprised. Our heart stopped beating for a moment, but lost not a scintilla of its fire nor a whit of its courage. We believe that all that makes our lives worth living is at stake in this fateful conflict.

So far as we can see, in the light of this present moment, existence beneath the sway of the man whose heart appears to be possessed by devils would be intolerable. We would as soon have been a citizen of Rome under Nero. We have too long breathed the air of freedom to be willing to wear the chains of slavery riveted by the hand of a military tyrant. Whether it be a war of five years or fifty, it would seem worth while to struggle on against a fate like that. And, anyway, if Germany wins it will simply mean the exchange of one war for another, for conquest is the single-minded aim of the kaiser and his war lords. The conquest of America, of Africa and of Asia as much a part of the infernal scheme as that of Russia, France and England.

If warfare, therefore, is to be the normal life of man upon this globe we prefer this war to any other, for we are fighting now for the only causes which make it beautiful to live—the causes of liberty, justice and the peaceful pursuit of happiness for ourselves and for our loved ones. We have begun already to adjust ourselves to the exigencies of a five-year war. We mean to economize on food and clothing; we mean to save our money; we mean to plant every seed for which we can find a place in our garden. We are schooling our hearts to make the sacrifice required. We are hardening our wills for the efforts which we may by any possibility be called upon to make.

Five years is a long time to pass in scenes of horror like those which we have been compelled to gaze upon so long, but when the end in view is great enough no noble spirit counts the cost of its attainment. When we take a moment to remember what our soldiers have endured to "make this world safe for democracy" we do not feel like shrinking from a sacrifice as great. If the prize was worth the price to them, it certainly must be so to us.

Five years! Well, let us set our stakes at that distant goal. Let us set our second wind and "run with patience" the race that is set before us. What are five short years in the vast cycle of the ages?

MONEY FOR THE ALLIES.

(Ohio State Journal.)
This country has already loaned to the allies $4,585,460,660. What a great nation these figures show the United States to be! They not only demonstrate the greatness of our resources, but the grandeur of our generous disposition. While they represent the credit of those nations, they represent also our faith in the great cause in which we are united. Some day those countries will redeem their debts, but this country will help them to redeem by the friendly disposition of its claims. This splendid financial transaction will have a great influence upon the international relations of the future, for it will establish a fidelity to one another that will make the cause of peace practical.

A newspaper's opinions that are made with one eye on the subscription list are hardly worth the paper they're printed on.

Of course Congress hasn't much of a sense of humor or its members couldn't help laughing at themselves when they put on the rousements and fairly split the air open with their eloquence without attracting the slightest attention, but if they would only pass the Daylight Savings bill it would be such a joke on the contrary people who insist upon turning night into day and vice versa.

"Give me your hand, sweet Helen Bland."
"I'm young Billy Buke," said she. "I won't give you my hand, but I'll give you the shake."

Her father heard the sully mutt. "This question to her put."
"Your hand you shall not give him."
He said, "Here is my foot."

REDUCES SWOLLEN VEINS

Reports That Veins Can Be Reduced to Normal and at a Trifling Cost.

Don't wait until it is too late before you start to do something worth while for those enlarged veins. Physicians who are in a position to know are recommending a powerful germicide that speeds cures, enlarges or varicose veins and bunches to become normal veins and bunches to become normal veins. Ask any first class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that it acts as a long time and furthermore if this wonderful discovery does not produce the results anticipated, you can have the price refunded. It is not wise for anyone to allow swollen veins to keep on enlarging. Often they burst and cause weeks of pain, suffering and loss of employment. Apply Emerald Oil as directions advise and improvement will begin at once. Evans Drug Store can supply you. —Adv.

DEFENDANT IN THE BLACKMAIL CASE ON STAND TODAY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Atlanta, Ga., March 15.—Mrs. Margaret A. Hirsch, charged with attempted blackmail of Mayor Asa C. Candler, today took the witness stand in her own behalf before starting her statement. The courtroom was cleared of spectators, at her request.

In a statement as to what the defense expects to prove, attorneys declared they would show there was no conspiracy between Mrs. Hirsch and Cook, but on the contrary that the woman was made the victim of threats by Cook to reveal to her husband the details of what he saw in Mayor Candler's office. They said they expected to prove Candler was strongly attracted to Mrs. Hirsch and used his wealth and prominence to induce and persuade her to come to his office and submit to his advances.

The attorneys say they would show that when Cook unexpectedly arrived at the mayor's office and caught Mrs. Hirsch and Mayor Candler in a compromising position, Mayor Candler walked with Mrs. Hirsch to the elevator after Cook had left, and requested her to call him on the telephone in a few minutes, and when she did call Forrest Adair, the mayor's friend, was put on the wire.

Mr. Adair, the attorneys declared, induced Mrs. Hirsch to bring up the subject of money, and got her to name a sum, and that she named the sum as a consideration which she felt was due her in view of the fact that she was to be forced to leave the city. They said they expected to prove that Adair first attempted to persuade her to accept $250 a month.

When Mrs. Hirsch took the stand, she was pale and nervous from crying.

"Mrs. Hirsch, will you make your statement in your own words without being questioned?" said Judge Hill.

Looking up at the judge, Mrs. Hirsch said:

"Will I have to tell my story before all these people?"

"Do you wish to have the courtroom cleared?" asked the judge.

"Yes, I would very much prefer it, your honor."

Thereupon Judge Hill ordered the courtroom cleared of all spectators.

SOCIAL EVENTS

SOCIETY EDITOR, AUTO PHONE 25123.

Wilson and son Alva, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius McCarrick of Washington, Pa., Mr. Alva Wilson of Newport, Ia., and Mrs. Straw's mother, Mrs. James Boyer of Gratiot.

The Unity Reading Circle entertained with a special evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Barrick in Woods avenue, Thursday, when the husbands of the members and the following guests were present:

ent: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Berger, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Phillips, Miss Amshook, Mrs. McCrumb, Masters Harold Loudin and James Millisor.

The Shamrocks and U. S. flags were used to adorn the home and at the luncheon Irish flags were given as favors and Irish cards seated the guests. In a contest "Trimming the Spring Bonnet," the souvenirs for the best creation were awarded to Mrs. J. C. Berger and Mrs. A. S. Mitchell. Irish songs were sung during the evening hours and the evening closed with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner." The guests numbered forty-eight.

A delightful afternoon was spent at the home of Mrs. Homer J. Davis in the Mt. Vernon road on Thursday afternoon by the nurses of the county in response to Mrs. Davis' at home which was announced for the members of the District 6, Ohio State Association of Nurses.

The decorations were all patriotic in nature, the luncheon table being centered with a miniature Red Cross nurse and streamers of red ribbons and flags were used. Little Miss Jean Davis, attired as a nurse, admitted the guests.

A charming social afternoon was spent, and an informal discussion of events pertinent to the work and aim of the association was had. Twenty nurses were in attendance and it was especially urged that all who could attend the joint state and national meeting of the nurses' association which will be held in Cleveland on May 6, 7, 8 and 9. It will be the first opportunity many in this section will have had of attending a national meeting as they have heretofore only been held in the more distant and larger cities.

Already 11 nurses from Licking county are engaged in war work, five of these are known to be in France, Mrs. W. H. Lewis, Miss Hirschberger, Miss Forry, Miss Sharkey and Miss Hooson. Nine applications for further Red Cross work were filed with Mrs. Davis yesterday.

OBITUARY

Prof. Elmer Smock.
Prof. Elmer Smock, 50, died at Mt. Carmel hospital, Columbus, Thursday morning at 2 o'clock following an operation. He was a well known educator and for a number of years was superintendent of the Dresden and Newcomertown schools. He is survived by his wife.

The funeral services will be conducted at Newcomertown Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Frazeysburg cemetery.

Mrs. Ray C. Blackstone.
Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Ray C. Blackstone, 20, at a hospital in Washington, D. C., on Wednesday.

Mrs. Blackstone was formerly Miss Mabel Norris of Zanesville and was united in marriage to Mr. Blackstone on last Thanksgiving. Mr. Blackstone at that time was employed as secretary to Mr. Willis Sachs of the B. and O. railroad company and had just been going to Washington to take a position. The deceased is a niece of Mrs. Guy Lentz of Fairfield avenue and a great niece of E. C. Norris of North Fourth street.

The body will be taken to Zanesville for interment.

Louis Wiley.
Louis Wiley, 90, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Gutridge, at Zanesville, Thursday afternoon at 2:40 o'clock. The deceased was a veteran of the civil war and at one time was employed at Cedar Hill cemetery for 21 years. Besides the daughter he is survived by two sons, Orlando of North Gay street, and a son in Indiana. The funeral arrangements have not been made.

The funeral services will be conducted Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock at 137 South Fifth street. Interment in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Joseph Simpson.
Joseph Simpson died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Edward Bending in Columbus on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The deceased was born on May 2, 1838 in Halifax, Yorkshire, England, and came to America when but three years old. His childhood was spent at Somerset, O., and his early boyhood and until 1878 was spent in Newark.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Bending of Columbus, three sons, Harold G. of Columbus, and Benjamin L. of Kansas City. Also one grandson, Lusby Simpson, who is with an engineering corps in France, four granddaughters and one great-grandson.

He was married in New York over fifty years ago to Miss Matilda Lusby. Recently he has contributed memoirs and reminiscences to the newspapers and in his early manhood was quite a musician.

The funeral will be held at Cedar Hill cemetery Saturday morning at 10:30. The Episcopal service being held at the grave. Friends are invited to the cemetery.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Need Help to Pass the Crisis Safely—Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Can be Relied Upon.

Urbana, Ill.—"During Change of Life" in addition to its annoying symptoms, I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt times that I would never be well again.

I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I told my doctor I would try it. I soon began to gain in strength and the annoying symptoms disappeared and your Vegetable Compound is the only one I can recommend.

Mrs. FRANK HENSON, 1316 S. Orchard St., Urbana, Ill.

Women who suffer from nervousness, "heat flashes," backache, headaches and "the blues" should try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A SAFE PLACE TO TRADE

A SHOWING OF NEW SPRING STYLES THAT ECLIPSE ANY PREVIOUS DISPLAY

That is the verdict of the hundreds and hundreds of women who have viewed the lovely new garments. It has taken us weeks and weeks to gather this assemblage together, but the result is well worth the extra effort put forth. We want you to see this out of the ordinary display; compare it with anything you have seen where as to Style, Quality and Price. Your own good judgment and your love of "things different" will persuade you to select your new Spring apparel here. One more word, in spite of the many difficulties, this showing measures up in respect to the high standard of quality which this store has always maintained.

Distinctive Coats and Suits Styles Depicting The Very Newest Notes

Seemingly unending arrivals make our apparel section like a continuous Fashion Show. Perhaps some people would call them "whims," but we know the importance of your desire to have your clothes in the exact style that you want them. With this idea in mind we have selected representative lines from the country's best makers of women's apparel. For we want you to be sure when you come here of not only the very newest but the most desirable styles and of unquestionable quality. You may also be sure that the styles are not to be seen elsewhere in the city. We have them exclusively. The tailoring and fit are all you might ask. The values are such that—because of market uncertainties—are not likely to be equaled again. Priced at—

RELIEF AFTER SUFFERING FROM RHEUMATISM FORTY-FIVE YEARS

Gloucester, Mass., Man Suffered From Pain and Stiffness In Every Joint of Body

Elden Tibbetts of 13 Proctor street, Gloucester, Mass., says he is recommending Varney's to all who

and finally involved every joint of his body. He continued:

"My right arm was sore and stiff and it was very difficult for me to use it, my hand was weak and my fingers when moved felt as though they were dry.

"I was in constant pain for 45 years and all this time doing everything I possibly could to find relief. At times the pain was very severe keeping me awake at night and during the day the only relief I could obtain was when I was perfectly quiet.

"I treated with several physicians, but received no marked benefit. I was pretty well discouraged when started to take Varney's. However, I am glad I continued the treatment for in a very short time the pain and stiffness grew so troublesome and now I feel twenty-five years younger. It is really a remarkable what Varney's has accomplished for me and I am recommending it to all who suffer from rheumatism of the joints as I did.

Varney's does not contain ordinary anti-rheumatism drugs, often given for rheumatism, such as salicylates, iodides, capsaicin, pepper. Varney's tends to help the stomach and cannot harm the kidneys. W. A. Varney offers $1000 if the testimonials published are other than genuine or if they have been purchased.

Sent to W. A. Varney, Lynn, Mass., for the "Story of Varney's." Get Varney's now, today, from W. A. Varney, Lynn, Mass., or at W. W. Smith, druggist.—Adv.

DO YOU KNOW OATMEAL?
Watch the Advocate for a series of six recipes for oatmeal delicacies. This is No. 1:

Scotch Soup.
With bread and dessert it is enough for lunch or supper:

2 1/2 quarts water.
1 1/2 cups rolled oats.
5 potatoes cut in small pieces.
2 onions, sliced.
2 tablespoons flour.
2 tablespoons fat.

Boil the water and add the oatmeal, potato, and onion. 1/2 tablespoon of salt and 1/2 teaspoon pepper. Cook for one-half hour. Brown the flour with the fat and add to the soup. Cook until thick. One cup of tomato adds to the flavor. Serves five people.—U. S. Food Administration.

One by one the flowers are taken. One by one the roses fall. But we carefully remember. Pain and sorrow comes to all.

But while his form is hidden from us, And his voice we hear no more, We are truest for a meeting On that happy golden shore.

STAMBAUGH TALKS ON REPENTANCE

Evangelist F. M. Stambaugh in his sermon on repentance at St. Louisville Christian Church said in substance: "It is practically easy to get men to believe on Christ. It is not a difficult thing to induce men to be baptized, but the intervening step, that of true repentance is extremely hard to bring about."

"True repentance consists of submerging one's will in the will of Christ, making one's will parallel with his and results in a redeemed life. The Prodigal Son and the Ninevites are examples of people who truly repented as evidenced by their redeemed lives—their turning away from sin and continuing in the faith. Herod, an example of people who did not repent and thus were lost. They were sorry for their sins but it is possible to be sorry and remorseful without being repentant. Golly sorrow out being repentant. Golly sorrow out being repentant. Golly sorrow out being repentant."

leads to a changed life but they were not of this type of sorrow. A Christian must repent daily—not once in a lifetime. He must do this in order to be pure, for every one is guilty of some sin, either that of omission or commission, every day. God's goodness, the judgment, the heavenly reward, and escape from punishment were given as motives for repentance.

CLOTHING WANTED FOR THE BELGIAN REFUGEES
During all of next week, the local chapter of the Red Cross will receive contributions of clothing for men, women and children of Belgium who have escaped from the Hun. America will send five thousand tons of clothes to these stricken people who have nothing. Contributions will be received at the room formerly occupied by the Interurban restaurant, directly across from the Interurban station every day next week. The clothes will be sent on one of the campaign all over the United States. Families of the enlisted men are gone. The clothing of the boys who are gone. They want new things. Help fill the boxes. Let us do our share in taking care of those who have given their lives that Democracy might be safe in the world.

PREPARING FOR GREAT DRIVE ON WESTERN FRONT

pending negotiations over these vessels to a close in favor of the allied interests. The German press is reported in news agency advices through Copenhagen to be demanding counter measures of the most drastic nature if Holland yields. Simultaneously, according to advices through Amsterdam, Germany is again threatening to open her long talked of offensive on the western front. Field Marshal von Hindenburg is quoted as declaring "that the great German offensive" must go on now that the entente has shown itself unresponsive toward "Germany's peace intentions."

Other reports state that Germany is prepared to sacrifice 300,000 men in a new drive in the west, which would seem a comparatively small number in view of her reputed losses in the losing effort at Verdun—about 600,000 men.

One year ago today Emperor Nicholas abdicated as autocrat ruler of Russia and yesterday the all-Russian congress of Soviets by an overwhelming vote agreed to German peace terms.

German militarism takes from the present Russian government thousands of square miles of land and millions of inhabitants contained in the former imperial territories of Finland, Poland, Courland, Lithuania, Estonia, Livonia and the Ukraine in Europe and Batoum, Kars and Erivan in the Caucasus. The Russian army must demobilize, the Russian fleet is interned and favorable trade agreements are to be given Germany and her allies.

Announcement of allied policy toward Russia and of Japanese intentions in eastern Siberia probably will follow quickly after four months of rule, has surrendered completely to demands of Germany and opened up the vast European and Asiatic territories to German economic and military penetration.

The question of Japanese intervention in Siberia has brought from Foreign Secretary Balfour in the British house of commons the declaration that he had every confidence in Japanese loyalty in any action it might be decided to take in the far east. Japan, he said, would act as the friend of Russia and as the emissary of the entente governments in helping Russia to combat German penetration and save the revolution.

American troops have made their first permanent advance into the German positions on the western front. Northeast of Badonvillers, in the Lunville sector, trenches which the enemy was forced to abandon have been consolidated with the American first line. Repeated American raids on this sector and the effective work of the American gunners forced the Germans to give up the trenches. German efforts to regain their lost positions were repulsed by General Pershing's men.

The new position gives the American and French troops higher ground from which to operate against the common foe. Badonvillers is eight miles west of the German frontier and is almost directly west of Strassburg, the capital of Alsace. The American position here is about 18 miles southeast of the Rhine-Marne canal where the Americans first entered the trenches last November.

On both the Lunville and Toul sectors the American artillery has been firing many shells into the German positions. Northwest of Toul, German plans or a gas attack again were frustrated when the American gunners destroyed four groups of gas projectors which had been placed in positions. German batteries, trenches, wire entanglements and other military targets are being harassed by the heavy fire of the Americans.

Fighting activity on the British front from Ypres south toward Arras continues at a sharp pitch. On the hitherto quiet sector between Arras and Valenciennes, about 15 miles, the German artillery fire continues intense, as it has been for several days past. A strong German detachment attempted a raid on this front but was thrown back by the Portuguese troops. On the southern end of the Ypres sector Australian troops have been successful in raids into enemy lines and in repulsing German raiding parties.

BUILD OUR TOWN—BUY IN NEWARK

HOLOPHANE COMPANY TO ERECT NEW EXPERIMENTAL PLANT AND MAY BRING SALES ORGANIZATION TO THIS CITY

Contracts were let yesterday for the erection of the new experimental plant for the Holophane Glass company. The question as to whether this plant would be built in Newark or elsewhere was in doubt for some time, but due to the efforts of the Newark Chamber of Commerce, it is gratifying to know that the Holophane business, which has been associated with Newark for almost 20 years, will remain here.

The new experimental plant will be located on the company property on Oakwood avenue, and will comprise tank, lehr, and general factory buildings directly connected. Permission has just been granted by the Pennsylvania lines for the construction of a sidetrack into the property, and work will commence immediately.

In view of the interest which has been taken locally in Holophane matters, the officers of the company instead of placing the whole contract with specialists in glass-making plants, have decided to give the contract for the building to W. B. Patton, of this city, and the contract for the tank and lehrs with a specialist firm.

Work is being commenced immediately and the plant will be ready for operation in the early summer.

Although the principal operation will be in the line of experimental work, it is intended to manufacture there the Holophane automobile lens, and as the demand for these is increasing very rapidly, it is anticipated that there will be a substantial increase in the Holophane payroll. Recently tests on these lenses by the state of Vermont show that out of 90 per cent of the leading lenses tested, the Holophane lens gave much better results in print-reading and in the detection of objects at a long distance from the machine.

The Holophane experiments for betterment of street lighting have resulted in the equipping of many of the larger cities throughout the world with Holophane refractors. Amongst some of the recent visitors to the plant was the principal officer of the company associated with the better street lighting of Australian towns.

It is rumored that the inauguration of the new plant may mean the transfer to Newark of the sales organization, now located in New York, and it is to be hoped that the Chamber of Commerce will be successful in their efforts to this end.

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

At least 48 Licking county people have bought their full limit of war savings stamps—200 $5 stamps, the present cost of which is $828. It is probable that many others have purchased their full quota. The state war savings committee asks that all who buy 200 war savings stamps send their names and addresses to the Licking county war savings committee in order that certificates of membership in the Ohio One Thousand Dollar War Savings Society may be sent to them. Here are names of 43 people who have bought all of the war savings stamps the law permits one person to hold. It should be remembered, however, that every member of a family is allowed to own $1000 worth of war stamps:

Last week the Hanover village district passed the $500 mark in war stamp sales.

This means that half of the quota has been raised, thanks to the intelligent effort of Supt. Quincy Cheadle.

The patriotic addresses given in the interest of the war savings campaign by Rev. G. B. Schmitt and Prof. H. F. Moninger at Utica last Tuesday night were much appreciated by all who heard them. Mr. Schmitt presented the stereopticon pictures of ruined cathedrals in France that were shown recently in Newark and in Hebron. This was the first showing of these interesting pictures in Ohio. Other communities that are interested in seeing these pictures should communicate with the War Savings Committee, Newark, O.

Here are additional Thrift Stamp agents in Supt. Byron Zwayer's district: Geo. Kresger, Fairview school, Hopewell township, R. D. No. 1, Newark, O.; Ada Orr Clark, Lloyd school, Licking township, Brownsville, O.

Brownsville now has a total of $543.00, due to the energy of Principal Reed S. Johnston, together with interest of other teachers there.

Granville road school, Newark township, with nine pupils, this week report their quota of $63.00, Miss Nora Norpell, teacher.

Hayes school, Union township, Miss Laura Sewell, teacher, reports a total of $101.75.

The men's brotherhood of the Central Church of Christ listened attentively to the presentation of the war savings plan last night and manifested much interest in the savings campaign.

SCHOOL MINSTREL

MARCH 21 AND 22

WILL BE SPLENDID

The seventh annual high school minstrel is to be given next Thursday and Friday nights in the high school auditorium. A matinee will also be given Thursday afternoon for grade school children. Bigger and better is the verdict reached by those who have attended the rehearsals, for the boys have been working hard under the direction of Professor Klapp. An excellent overture has been prepared and several beautiful ballads are to be featured, while the latest song hits are to be sung by the endmen. Among the soloists are Sheldon Eckfeld and Donald Cross. Both of these young men will be remembered for their splendid work of last year. Donald Power is to be interlocutor. The endmen are James Miller, Carl Keatwale, Manly Foster, Frank Simms, George Stuckey and Loren Fairall, together with the premiers, Edwin Essington and Walter Schimp.

The chorus this year is the largest that has ever been assembled by the high school, comprising over 40 people. This first part, it is said, for an amateur performance, cannot be beat and an olio consisting of several good acts is assured. This minstrel is given by the Boys' Athletic Association, and in former years has been a great success, holding an enviable reputation among amateur performances in this city.

We know you are going to buy an Electric Cleaner some time and it would pay you to see the Hooper or Eureka before buying. A call over the phone will bring one to your house at no obligation to you. THEN DECIDE. The Avery & Loeb Elect. Co., 46 Third, Auto 1355. 3-7-9-15-16

KILLED WIFE IN KITCHEN OF HOME WITH A FLATIRON

Cleveland, March 15.—Louis Rebaudo, scantily-clad 11-year-old boy, walked the streets for more than two hours this morning, covering a distance of seven miles, looking for a policeman to tell him that his father had murdered his mother.

His father, James Rebaudo, according to police, killed his wife, Mrs. Frances Rebaudo, in the kitchen of their home, early this morning. Police said the murder was committed with a flatiron.

The first intimation police had of the crime came when the boy approached Patrolman Krall and said: "My father told me to tell you that he killed my mamma."

The location of the Rebaudo home was obtained from the child and a detail of police sent to the house, where they found Mrs. Rebaudo's body lying on the kitchen floor in a pool of blood. The husband was arrested.

CHARGED WITH A VIOLATION OF ESPIONAGE ACT

Norfolk, Va., March 15.—Forty-three members of the crew of the Russian steamer Omak, in port here, today faced charges of violating the espionage act as the result of their efforts, Thursday night, to seize the steamer. Warrants for the men were sworn out last night after documents, found aboard the vessel indicated, government agents said, that certain members of the crew were "not bona fide seamen, but rather highly intellectual parties to a political plot which finally planned to divert the Omak's cargo to Russia."

The ship's cargo of cotton is consigned to Liverpool.

GRANVILLE

(Special to the Advocate.)
Granville, March 15.—The auditorium of the Baptist church was filled this afternoon with university people, students, faculty and trustees and members of this and other denominations throughout the community, who gathered to pay the last sad tribute of love and respect to Dr. R. S. Colwell, who, as head of the Greek department, and later as dean of the university, has almost completed his forty-first year in the institution.

The impressive services were conducted by the president of the university, Dr. C. W. Chamberlain, and the pastor of the church, Dr. Millard Breckford. Tributes were paid by former President D. E. Purinton of Morgantown, W. Va., and Dr. C. E. Goodell, president of Franklin college, Ind. Dr. C. J. Baldwin, pastor for twenty-seven years of this church in which Dr. Colwell served so faithfully for forty years, also assisted in the services.

Mrs. C. B. Newton, formerly Miss Elizabeth Benedict, presided at the organ.

The senior class formed an escort to the College cemetery where impressive and beautiful committal service was held, each bearing flowers from the altar, offerings of love from friends and kindred.

Dr. H. R. Hundley, principal of Doane Academy, and a close personal friend of the deceased, was in charge of the arrangements. Pallbearers were: Burton Case, L. A. Austin, T. F. Chambers, T. S. Johnson, Howard Lewis of Toledo, and Harold Phillips of the student body. W. P. Ullman was in charge of the seating and H. W. Deming of the automobiles. The floral tributes were magnificent.

A large attendance of members and guests of the Granville Mothers' Club were rewarded by a wonderfully interesting program on Monday evening in the parlor of the Baptist church, when the following topics were presented in well prepared papers: "Overcoming Hereditary Taint by Training and Environment," Mrs. Will Thomas; "Prenatal Influences," Mrs. H. D. Fish; "Alarming Increase of Inferior over Super Stock," Mrs. Hood. Members of committees were appointed and work outlined by the president, Mrs. C. D. Coons. Mrs. F. G. Boughton, chairman of the Home Economics, gave some helpful hints on house-keeping and spring sewing.

Dr. D. B. Purinton of Morgantown, W. Va., former president of Denison University, later president of the University of West Virginia, is the guest of President and Mrs. C. W. Chamberlain.

President C. E. Goodell of Franklin College, formerly head of the history department in Denison is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Stanton.

PHILADELPHIA NATIONALS LEAVE.

AMUSEMENTS

AUDITORIUM

Ruth Mac Tammany.
Newark is entertaining, and is honored with a visit by Miss Ruth Mac Tammany, noted and clever picture star, who is seen both in the screen version of "Alma, Where Do You Live?" also in person. The Auditorium was crowded at all showings yesterday, the houses last night running to capacity and all were delighted with the entertainment as offered by this really entertaining little lady. Miss Mac Tammany has seen several Europe and can tell about it in a way that people like to hear. Her singing of "Jean of Arc," "Over There," "Alma, Where Do You Live?" and several other numbers brought the houses down. Her talk on life "Over There" also comes in for a round of applause and her dancing pleased immensely. Mr. Fenberg is to be congratulated on bringing her to this city, for it surely is one of the biggest novelties of the season. Miss Mac Tammany's engagement runs over Saturday with two shows this afternoon and two this evening—running continuously tomorrow and none should miss seeing the picture of Newark's greatest hit, "Alma, Where Do You Live?"

The average layman does not know the hardships connected with stage life, for those who saw Miss Ruth Mac Tammany go through her work yesterday would not believe that she was working with a saddened heart, for in the afternoon she had received a wire from Akron, her home, saying "Father was better. Will advise his condition hourly. After father lies down in a hospital in that city. But she went on with her act and sent thousands away from that theatre happy. Thus it is for those on the stage.

So as not to disappoint thousands of patrons who had enjoyed the extra added feature last week of the Paramount-Chapin, "The Son of Democracy," that started at the Auditorium, the management will show the second number, "The Call to Arms" today and tomorrow in conjunction with the big feature attraction, Miss Ruth Mac Tammany, and her feature picture, "Alma, Where Do You Live?" This is one of the biggest entertainments ever offered Newark show goers and none should miss it.

"The Son of Democracy."
That people as they really are furnish better comedy than caricatures is proved by Benjamin Chapin in "The Son of Democracy," the new Paramount series, which began at the Auditorium theatre last week. "The Son of Democracy" is a series of ten half-hour stories, each complete in itself. One story is to be shown each week. Each is a play of vital American life, but Mr. Chapin, differing from so many producers—believes that good humor is as vital as tragedy.

A new sort of comedy, clean, gentle and based on an intimate knowledge of the queer quirks in human nature, is the sort Mr. Chapin has put in "The Son of Democracy." He has found that people as they really are furnish good laughs. Their inconsistencies, their poses, their misunderstandings presented in a motion picture bring to mind familiar scenes and the spectator says, "That's just like Bill," or "I did that same thing myself," or "Isn't that real human nature?" and laughs good humoredly.

The leading character in "The Son of Democracy" is Abraham Lincoln. The second number, "The Call to Arms," is seen today and tomorrow.

"Jack Sparlock—Prodigal."
"Jack Sparlock—Prodigal," a William Fox production, is shown at the Auditorium Sunday, together with a two-reel Paramount-Mack Sennett comedy, "Sheriff Nelson," which is the story of the star of "Jack Sparlock" and it is brimming with humor, and underlying the fun is a strata of horse sense philosophy and a strong appeal.

A 400-pound Alaskan bear has a part in this photo comedy and the stunts he does make a spectator gasp. Mr. Bear breaks in on the reason of young Sparlock, a Harvard student, buying him while on a lark one night. The story it tells that it is a good idea to buy a bear that to get rid of one. The film story appeals strongly in its human interest phase.

The leading character in "The Son of Democracy" is Abraham Lincoln. The second number, "The Call to Arms," is seen today and tomorrow.

Frank D. Hall, North Side Square

Mr. Russell, with a desire to solve the mystery of the robbery

Monday and Tuesday.
It is made evident in the production of "Fighting Odds," in which Maxine Elliott, the noted beauty, makes her first appearance as a star in filmdom, that the producers have overlooked no opportunity for realism. There are two scenes in this photo-drama by Roy Cooper, Messure and Irwin S. Cobb photographed at places which are widely known. One of these is at Sherry's, on Fifth Avenue, New York City, and the other is at Sing Sing Prison. It would have been easy enough for Director Allan Dwan to have constructed scenes of his own, resembling them, at the studios, but since these places were named as such in the story, Mr. Dwan wanted the real thing. The scene in Sherry's shows the famous restaurant with its many tables and chairs, and the attraction at the Alhambra theatre Monday and Tuesday.

LYRIC.
"The Charming Widow." will be presented Friday matinee at the Lyric, by the company of the same name. It is a musical farce built for laughing purposes only. If you have a grouchy come and get rid of it. It is a clever farce comedy, and laughs are certain. The fun is fast and furious at all times. Don't forget Friday night is Country Store night, and this alone is always worth the price of admission. Valuable prizes will be given away.

MT. ZION.
Milton Hayes and Virgil Wolfe attended the Travel sale near Utica last Wednesday. John Wolfe and Mrs. Virgil Wolfe attended the annual roll call meeting of the Presbyterian church at Bladenburg Thursday.

Milton Hayes was called to New Castle last week by the serious illness of his mother.

Miss Wave Schooler is on the sick list.

Sunday school will be reorganized at Mt. Zion Sunday, March 31. Let everyone come and help the good work along.

Nathan Pryor made a business trip to Utica Monday.

RUTH MAC TAMMANY.

Tammany go through her work yesterday would not believe that she was working with a saddened heart, for in the afternoon she had received a wire from Akron, her home, saying "Father was better. Will advise his condition hourly. After father lies down in a hospital in that city. But she went on with her act and sent thousands away from that theatre happy. Thus it is for those on the stage.

So as not to disappoint thousands of patrons who had enjoyed the extra added feature last week of the Paramount-Chapin, "The Son of Democracy," that started at the Auditorium, the management will show the second number, "The Call to Arms" today and tomorrow in conjunction with the big feature attraction, Miss Ruth Mac Tammany, and her feature picture, "Alma, Where Do You Live?" This is one of the biggest entertainments ever offered Newark show goers and none should miss it.

That people as they really are furnish better comedy than caricatures is proved by Benjamin Chapin in "The Son of Democracy," the new Paramount series, which began at the Auditorium theatre last week. "The Son of Democracy" is a series of ten half-hour stories, each complete in itself. One story is to be shown each week. Each is a play of vital American life, but Mr. Chapin, differing from so many producers—believes that good humor is as vital as tragedy.

A new sort of comedy, clean, gentle and based on an intimate knowledge of the queer quirks in human nature, is the sort Mr. Chapin has put in "The Son of Democracy." He has found that people as they really are furnish good laughs. Their inconsistencies, their poses, their misunderstandings presented in a motion picture bring to mind familiar scenes and the spectator says, "That's just like Bill," or "I did that same thing myself," or "Isn't that real human nature?" and laughs good humoredly.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! Is Tongue coated, breath feverish and
stomach sour?

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged
up with waste, liver gets sluggish,
stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless,
cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or
has sore throat or any other ailment,
give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups.
Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Advertisement.

reason for its remarkable success.
The kiddies like it, ask for it,
and it does them good. Slightly laxative, too, and keeps them in good condition. Keep it in your medicine closet and give it to the kiddies for all forms of coughs, colds and croup. Just as effective for old folks, too, especially for grippe.
Get it at your druggists.

Careless Use of Soap Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily,
removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves
the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

DOCTORS PRESCRIBE BACORN'S FORKOLA
FOR COLD IN THE HEAD AND CATARRH

No sensible person will continue to suffer from dangerous colds or catarrh of nose or throat which often lead to deafness, catarrhal asthma and bronchitis, when they can obtain a small jar of Forkola Jelly at any well-stocked drug store.

One-quarter teaspoonful of this prepared jelly allowed to slowly melt in your mouth will in a few minutes enable you not only to breathe easier,
but also to get rid of that nasty choking, clogging discharge that causes so much misery and distress.

Physicians are prescribing and hospitals are using this new treatment with remarkable success. It is guaranteed to give relief in one minute from colds, coughs and catarrh or money back, so try it at our expense.
Evans' drug store can supply you.

ORDER HOME GARDEN SEED EARLY; HOW TO FIND AMOUNTS NEEDED

Be a "Home Gardener."
The home gardens of America are the home guard in food production.
The "home gardener" of this year—our second in the war—is forewarned and thus forearmed.
The "home gardener" before he arms himself with his hoe, must fortify himself with knowledge.
Every peck of vegetables produced for home use this year from ground that never before grew food will mean a certain quantity of meat or wheat released for use behind our battle lines.
Join the "home gardeners."

Get the seed for your home garden
early. This is an important step in the home gardener's effort to supply fresh vegetables for his table and for canning and to help relieve the demand on the country's supplies of food.

Seed should be ordered well in advance of the time for planting in the open, so that it will be ready for planting in flats or frames and also for use outdoors as soon as the weather and the conditions of the soil make it possible. Before ordering seed the home gardener should decide what vegetables he wants to raise and also should look over his garden plot or plan and decide on the best location for each vegetable.

When You Choose Your Seed, Think of What It Will Bring. Have in Your Mind a Picture of the Product.

determining how much seed will be required for the space available for each variety. A well-laid garden plan, the preparation of which was described in an earlier article in this series, will be a great aid in determining the amounts and varieties of seed that will be needed.

Garden Space Valuable.
Just what vegetables are to be grown depends, of course, upon the individual tastes of the family. In general, the aim of the home gardener should be to raise vegetables of which freshness is an important quality. Peas, string beans, Lima beans, asparagus, and sweet corn,
for example, lose much if they are not cooked almost immediately after they are picked. In the case of potatoes, corn, cucumbers, squashes,
and melons, it should be remembered that these vegetables occupy a large area in proportion to their yield and in a small garden consume valuable space which, in most cases, could be used more profitably. In the case of potatoes, however, it also should be noted that they are easily stored and are an extremely good staple crop, and many gardeners will find it to advantage to plant as much ground to potatoes as possible after sufficient space has been allotted to the other garden crops.

Find Amount of Seed Needed.
Aim to make every seed count.
Remember the supply of some of the more important of garden seed is limited, and in order that all may obtain enough to meet their needs.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Editor of the Advocate:—I am a little late thanking you for the medal
but better late than never.
We have been drilling every day and guard duty takes quite a bit of your time. The weather is warm but gets quite cool at nights. Again thanking you for the medal which I appreciate very much and carry all the time. I remain, R. C. Shide, Co.
195, Hampton Roads, Va.

From Max Bader.
Editor of the Advocate:—One of the beautiful medals that the good people of Licking county have so cheerfully given to the soldiers and sailors now in service, reached me
last Sunday and I am taking advantage of the first opportunity to heartily thank these people for their kindness and assure them that I am justly proud of this medal.

For the benefit of any one interested in military affairs I might say that this company is an enlisted company, made up mostly of men from the east that are specialists in telephone and telegraph work. The company is being filled to regular strength with Ohio men, from the camp, and by enlistment. This gives us a company of men from all parts of the country and some interesting tales are told at times.

Newark is represented in both companies as Wm. Melbourn is a member of E company of the same battalion. We are kept quite busy everyone should co-operate to make what is used produce a maximum crop.

Following are the approximate quantities of seed that should be purchased for a garden which is to supply vegetables for successive plantings throughout the season for a family of four:

Beans, snap, 1 to 2 quarts.
Beans, pole, Lima, 1 pint.
Beans, bush, Lima, 1 pint.
Beet, 4 ounces.
Cabbage (early) 1 packet.
Cabbage (late) 1-2 ounce.
Carrot, 1 ounce.
Cauliflower, 1 packet.
Celery, 1 packet.
Corn, sweet, 1 to 2 pints.
Cucumber, 1 ounce.
Eggplant, 1 packet.
Kale or Swiss chard, 2 ounces.
Lettuce, 1-2 ounce.
Mushroom, 1 ounce.
Onion, 4 to 6 quarts.
Parsley, 1 packet.
Parsnips, 1-2 ounce.
Peas, garden, 2 to 4 quarts.
Radish, 1 ounce.
Salsify, 1 ounce.
Spinach, 1-4 pound in spring and 1-4 pound in fall.
Squash (summer) 1 ounce.
Squash (Hubbard) 1-2 ounce.
Tomatoes, early, 1 packet.
Tomatoes, late, 1-4 ounce.
Turnips, 2 to 3 ounces.
Watermelon, 2 ounces.

If a gardener should desire to plant all of the vegetables mentioned, it is calculated by garden specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture that enough space could

MUCH RHEUMATISM

Local Druggist's No-Cure No-Pay Offer Attracts Many Sufferers.

If there are any rheumatic sufferers in town who have not availed themselves of T. J. Evans' generous offer they should do so at once.

He states that if Rheuma, the guaranteed prescription for rheumatism, does not give any purchaser
quick and joyful relief he will return the purchase price without any quibbling or red tape.

Rheumatism is a dangerous disease, and anyone who has the slightest taint of it should drive it from the system as soon as possible. Read what Rheuma did for this sufferer:

"For five years I suffered with articular rheumatism, having bunches on my elbows, feet and wrists. I took everything I could get, with no relief. I saw your ad. and was greatly improved before I had used two bottles, and was cured before I had finished the third. I thank God for Rheuma and that I am free from rheumatism today. If anyone wishes information from me I will write them. I think Rheuma is a miracle."

—Mrs. Lucia Ryden, 102 Gubert
street, Syracuse, N. Y.

T. J. Evans and good druggists everywhere sell Rheuma. A large bottle is inexpensive and sufficient for two weeks' treatment.—Advertisement. 1-15-18-22

BROWNSVILLE.

Max Holmes of Bremen spent Saturday and Sunday at his home.

Mr. Morton received a telegram Sunday stating that his son Herbert, who is in training at Ft. Kelley, Texas, and who has been ill, is still in a serious condition.

Dr. Joel Cooperider has sold his property to Robert Hupp, Jr., and Mr.
Cooperider will soon leave for New Mexico, where they expect to make their future home.

Charles Watkins from Camp Sherman visited his parents over Sunday.
A service flag was presented at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening in honor of their boys, Sergeant O. L.
Rankin and H. M. Morton and Rev. Mr.
Day delivered most interesting patriotic addresses and Charles Rankin sang a solo, "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

"PASSING CHARIOTS," was the theme chosen by Evangelist Stanbaugh for a sermon on Tuesday evening at the Church of Christ, St. Louisville. This was a message to Christians, emphasizing the need and the advantage of grasping every opportunity for soul-winning that presents itself. Personal work was especially dwelt upon as being effective, and many instances were cited where conversions were brought about by the irresistible power of personal touch. An example of this was Philip's influence on the Ethiopian eunuch to whom he was directed by an angel of the Lord.

The importance of this incident is seen in the fact that Philip was at the time engaged in preaching Christ to the people of Samaria, and many were believing and being baptized. Yet, God in His infinite wisdom deemed it best to stop the preaching at this place and to bring about the conversion of one man.

As usual, special music was a part of the service, and will be given a place
each evening. Services each evening at 7 o'clock.

Bee Keepers To Have Meeting.
The Licking County Bee Keepers will hold their first meeting at the Farm Bureau rooms Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m. Matters of general interest to the members will be discussed and a large attendance is expected. Anyone who has bees or is interested in bees is welcome to attend this meeting.

Arrives in France.
Mrs. T. E. Hoop of Linden avenue received a card from her son, Paul, stating that he had arrived in France. He went to Camp Sherman among the first with a quota from Akron.

Firm Dissolves Partnership.
Attorney John J. Martin, junior member of the firm of Martin and Martin, has severed his connections with that firm and has established his office at 8 1-2 West Main street,
over the Baughman candy store.

Was Misquoted.
Dick Curry, who returned yesterday with Mrs. Curry, after having spent the winter in Florida, states that he was misunderstood in reference to his statement regarding the southern state. He considers Florida an ideal place in which to winter and believes that after a northerner becomes acclimated, he would not care to leave it. Mr. Curry investigated several orange groves
and expects to return at no distant future and make an investment.

Had Successful Sale.
Colville & Patterson conducted a very successful sale at their sales stables in South Fourth street, yesterday. A car load each was sold to buyers from Kenton, Coshocton Washington C. H.

Leaves Soon for France.
Mrs. Lee Workman and Mrs. Margaret Motz will leave Saturday morning for San Antonio, Texas,
where they will visit Mr. Workman,
who is in the army engineering service and expects to sail for France in the near future. They have been spending the winter in Newark, their former home, and from San Antonio will go to their home in Oklahoma.
Goes to Jacksonville.

C. F. Drake, West Main street,
as expediter for the A. H. Bentley Co., who are engaged in logging for the government ship building program.

No Police Court.
The necessity of police court was eliminated this morning by the lack of offenders, so the officials were given a little vacation.

Condition Improved.
Miss Frances Lane, who suffered a partial paralysis of the eyelid a few days ago is now improving. The attack came on suddenly, as Miss Lane was rubbing her eye almost unconsciously one day this week, she found suddenly that she could not raise or lower the lid of the eye.
Medical attention was given and it was found the lid was partially paralyzed. The condition has improved, however, and Miss Lane is now able to see out of the eye.

Small Blaze.
The Central and East Newark departments were called to the rear of 80 Vine street at 2:50 today. The cinders from the engines on the railroad had set fire to dry grass on a vacant lot. The blaze was easily extinguished.

BUY YOUR COAL

EARLY IS ADVICE OF ADMINISTRATOR

The local fuel administrator has received word from the United States administrator that it is probable that all consumers will be required to submit an attested statement setting forth the amounts of coal they now have on hand, that which they have ordered from the dealer, and the total amount used during the year 1917, and the amount necessary for 1918.

The national administrator advises through the local administrator that the consumers buy their coal as early as possible this year, and in that way do away with the difficulties encountered during the last few months.

DRUGGISTS ADOPT NEW SCHEDULE FOR CLOSING OF STORES

The local retail druggists have agreed to accept the new working schedule drawn up by the Retail Clerks Union in regard to the closing hours. The new schedule calls for 9 o'clock closing during the week and 10 o'clock Saturday evenings.
The agreement between the drug clerks and the retail druggists now calls for an 8 o'clock closing hour
during the winter months and 10 o'clock during the summer. This agreement expires May 1.

vited.

Wm. E. Bostwick died Saturday at the home of his son, C. C. Bostwick, aged 72 years. Mr. Bostwick was a Civil war veteran with an honorable record. He leaves one son, 10 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.
The quota of the Pataskala school
in thrift stamps amounts to $1598.
$115 will be raised by Miss Taylor's room; $89.75 by Miss McCormick's; $160.75 by Miss Van Dorn's; $332.
75 by Mr. Snow's; $219 by Mr. For-ter's; $33.25 by Mr. Black's; $100
by the normals.

W. R. Youmans of Ironton was called here last week by the death of his father, M. E. Youmans. Ray is now in charge of the new electrical plant at Ironton where electric engines for mines are manufactured.
F. C. Grable received a letter from his son Byron who is with the Rainbow division in France. Byron has enjoyed perfect health, has had plenty to eat and plenty to wear. He states that the peasants wear wooden shoes, plow with wooden plows—eight horses abreast—and do their cooking in old fashioned fire places,
in kettles hung on cranes.

Fern C. Mäuger arrived in France January 23. He is sergeant of the medical department hospital train
No. 21.

GOOD ATTENDANCE AT WOODSIDE MEETINGS

The interest and attendance at the Woodside meetings keep growing.
The young men from the Gospel Team of Denison University are steadily winning their way into the hearts of the large congregation.
They present the pure, manly gospel of Jesus Christ. Thursday evening the speakers were Messrs. Young, Abell, and Hurley. Mr. Young, who leads the singing, rendered a most impressive solo. Mr. Criley presided at the piano, and inspired the audience with a piano solo.

The principal speaker this evening will be Mr. Charles C. Kempton.
Song service will begin at 7:15.
Come and hear these splendid young men tell and sing the gospel story.

DECIDES TO BE A LIVE ONE

Young Man Gets Next to Himself
One of our young men sure has come to the front in short order and his friends are at a loss to understand his untiring energy and ability to work and get results, where only a few weeks before he seemed to be all run down and almost a nervous wreck.

Questioned by a curious friend as to the cause of the sudden change,
he said: "I sure was in bad shape
and no one knew it better than I did.
It had my goat for fair. I was all in and my nerves shot to pieces with worryment and sleepless nights. One day I overheard a customer telling what Phosphated Iron had done for him and I could not get a supply quick enough. That's the whole story, just Phosphated Iron. My poor tired overworked nerves just seemed to be Phosphated hungry, the way they took hold of it. I was not what a relief. I felt like a new man.
Could sleep at night, and get up in the morning feeling like a two-year-old. Believe me, I had some appetite too my weight increased rapidly,
my face filled out and had the color of perfect health that only goes with pure blood, well fed with Iron.

"You can bet I am strong for Phosphated Iron. Everyone who tries it is a booster.

"Do you know even the doctors are prescribing to trust them to get next to a good thing, they were not long wisely up to Phosphated Iron."

To insure doctors and their patients getting the genuine Phos-
phated Iron we have put in capsules
only, so do not allow dealers to substitute pills or tablets. Evans' drug store and leading drug stores everywhere.—Advertisement.
